

A MAJOR NEW BOOK
FROM THE BRITISH HERBAL MEDICINE ASSOCIATION

ISBN 0 903032 12 0

With 80 monographs this new volume of the British Herbal Compendium presents a wealth of information on herbal medicines. Based primarily on published research, each monograph includes sections on constituents (with structure diagrams), pharmacology and clinical studies together with therapeutics, safety data and regulatory status. References to scientific literature form a key part of the text and over 3000 full citations are included.

The need has never been greater for up-to-date summaries of the available scientific knowledge on medicinal plants. This authoritative text will be invaluable to all involved in the manufacture, supply or control of herbal medicines and to practitioners and students of phytotherapy.
